6.1.2 Design of Framework for Managing Risk

6.1.2.1 Integration into IMI's Processes

IMI's risk management shall be embedded in the existing organization's practices and processes. It shall be ensured that the risk management be part of the organization's processes and be relevant, effective and efficient. It is also imperative that the risk management is embedded into IMI's processes on policy development, business and strategic planning and review, and change management. A Risk management plan should be integrated into various plans, such as strategic plan and project plans.

6.1.2.2 Provision of Resources

Appropriate resources for risk management shall be allocated and given consideration on the following:

- People, skills, experience and competence
- Information and knowledge management systems
- Resources needed for each step of risk management process
- Processes, methods and tools to be used for managing risks
- Documented processes and procedures
- Training programs
- 6.1.2.3 Internal and External Communication and Reporting Mechanisms
 - 6.1.2.3.1 To support and encourage accountability and ownership of risk in each of the respective IMI sites, the following mechanisms, but not limited to, shall be employed throughout the organization's internal stakeholders:
 - Regular internal reporting on the implementation of the framework, its effectiveness and outcomes
 - Key components of the risk management framework and changes are communicated properly through orientation, formal training and workshops
 - Information on risk management is available at appropriate levels and time
 - Processes for consultation with internal stakeholders through meetings and reviews

Note: Risk owners shall report useful and actionable risk management information to enable them to make better decision. The following reports shall be prepared:

Semi-annual Risk Report – this report shall be generated from individual reports produced by Risk owners. Risk Owners shall endeavor to produce a comprehensive report summarizing and measuring these risks. The ERM Leader and CRO shall summarize the report from the risk owners and provide updates to the President and CEO on a semi-annual basis.

✓ Annual Risk Report – the risk owners and the CRO/ERM Leader shall provide an annual written report to the President and CEO for the results of the annual risk assessment and the result of the adequacy of the risk mitigation plans, where necessary.

For risk reporting purposes, all capital investments with amounts of USD250,000 and above, as well as all risks with financial profit and loss impact of USD100,000 and above must be included in the risk reports to the RMEC/CRO.

The respective risk owners shall perform risk assessment for all business proposals / strategies with capital investment amounting to USD250,000 and above, for reporting to the CRO who shall elevate the same for Finance's consideration. Specific action plans shall be submitted to ensure that the risks are managed, monitored and reported.

- 6.1.2.3.2 The following plans, but not limited to, shall be developed and implemented in order to communicate with external stakeholders
 - Engaging an effective exchange of information with external stakeholders
 - External regular reporting to comply with legal, regulatory and governance requirements
 - Establishing a Crisis communication team responsible for providing feedbacks and communicating in the event of a crisis or contingency

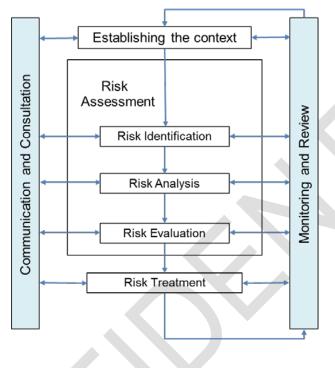

The sensitivity of the information communicated to both internal and external stakeholders shall be given attention and consideration.

6.1.3 Implementing Risk management

The risk management process shall be implemented accordingly following the process flow.

Risk management process (ISO 31000)

6.1.4 Monitoring and Review of the Framework

Monitoring of risk management performance shall be done by different functions at appropriate levels of IMI. It consists of a combination of metrics, regular review and periodic audits and evaluations to ensure that risk management is effective and continues to support IMI's performance.

6.1.5 Continual Improvement of the Framework

Continuous improvement shall be embedded into the risk management process via the use of effective processes (benchmarking, knowledge sharing and continuous employee learning) and constant evaluation.
